

Dear Mom

Although we don't see your pretty eyes behind your sun glasses, we do feel the warmth of your heart in all you do for us.

You assure our well-being every day and when we do slip under the weather, you soothe our souls,
lift our hearts and mend what ails us.

You nourish us
with your kindness, caring, love and affection
in ways that strengthen us as men to be ? prepared to face our challenges with courage and confidence while approaching our lives with tenderness and compassion.

Day-by-day,
your selfless caring for us and your shining example shows us how to live good lives, how to be good people and, one day, how to be good fathers.

We don't see your pretty eyes behind your sun glasses, Mom, but we do see, and we do feel all we will ever need through the Son Glasses we use, to see you so clearly, so lovingly, so dearly.
We love you, Mom, very much.
